CLEVELAND SERVICE MISSION

Small efforts, led by dedicated volunteers, are making a big difference in the lives of people in our community.

Just ask Dan Marshall and his team of volunteers who spent hours conducting property cleanup at two local women's shelters this quarter. In addition to landscaping and gardening the team of volunteers: :

- conducted on-going outreach to "at-risk" women. This ministry is in partnership with Cove City and Crossroads churches.
- made donations of various clothing, hygiene items, furniture and appliances to local recovery houses.
- Participated in a Mission trip to Little Rock, AR to assist with tornado recovery efforts. The team was joined by members of Cuyahoga Valley Church and was supported by Samaritan's Purse.
